GENERAL STRIKE IN ARGENTINA IS IN EFFECT TODAY

Great Disorder Follows Funeral of Men Killed in Tuesday's Tumults.

FIFTY THOUSAND ATTEND

Strikers Burn Railway Train, Then Turn Attention to Catholic School, Barring It and Leaving 400 Girls Students Without Place of Refuge.

By Associated Press.
BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 10.—A general strike was declared throughout Argentina last night.
Serious disorders followed the funeral yesterday afternoon of the five persons killed in Tuesday's disturbances. After the burial of the victims, the crowd of a thousand or more strikers which had formed the procession, burned a passenger train on the Pacific railway, which runs near the cemetery and then tore up the track paralyzing traffic on the Trans-Andina line.
Later they burned a Catholic church and the girls' school adjoining, throwing images and plates into the street and leaving the 400 girl pupils of the institution without quarters.
The district police station at the Victoria iron foundry was captured by armed strikers but it was asserted that the station had been recaptured.
The strike committee asserts that one company of infantry in this locality refused to fire on the strikers, laid down its arms and went to its barracks with the men under arrest.
The official Socialist party organ, La Vanguardia will say this morning:
"The funeral of Tuesday's victims was attended by 50,000 persons. The cortege was fired upon twice. It is impossible to state the number of killed and wounded in today's clashes but the casualties will reach great numbers. All the unions have decided to continue the strike indefinitely. The government has dismantled barracks and soldiers because it has no faith in the army."

FORGIVING ATTEMPT ON HER LIFE, WIFE OF JOHN POPOVICH CARES FOR HIM UNTIL DEATH

Passing of Former Hotelman Reveals Causal Case of Loyalty.

DESTROYED OWN SIGHT

The death yesterday morning at Vanderbilt of John Popovich, former Connellsville hotelman, invites attention to an instance of supreme loyalty of wife to husband—in this case to a husband who attempted to take the life of his wife (his own also) and was later rescued from the poor house by the one he had injured, since which time she has cared for him, he because of blindness being unable to look after his own welfare.
About two years ago Popovich shot his wife at their home at Vanderbilt and then turned the weapon on himself. The bullet entered at the temple and severed the optic nerve, resulting in Popovich becoming totally blind. His wife recovered, but still carries the leaden missile in her body.
Subsequently Popovich was sent to the county home at Uniontown, where he was an inmate for several weeks. Then Mrs. Popovich, her feeling against him softened, had him removed to their home again and since that time she has cared for him, at the same time managing a restaurant by which means she made a livelihood. At the time of the shooting Mr. and Mrs. Popovich operated also a bowling alley but this was discontinued.
Except for the time they were at the Kelly hotel, Water street, Connellsville, Mr. and Mrs. Popovich had spent their married life at Vanderbilt. There are four children, Edward, Emma, Stella and Bessie, ranging in ages from 19 to 11.
Mr. Popovich was 46 years old.

COMMITTEES MEET

TONIGHT TO TALK OVER FARE FIGHT

Complete Turnout of Representatives Expected at Conference in Uniontown.

The meeting of representative citizens from Fayette and Westmoreland counties will be held tonight at E. C. Higbee's office in Uniontown, to again take up the matter of the fight to be made against the new rates which the West Penn railways company intends to inaugurate on January 27. The meeting is called for 7:30 o'clock.
At the meeting it is expected to get the signatures of all the committee members on the petition to be filed immediately with the Public Service Commission in a protest against the increase. Committees which have been named in every community are expected to be at the meeting.
Mayor John Duggan, who headed the organization of the opposition at this place said he expected a complete turnout in Uniontown tonight. He said additional committees had been named since the meeting which was held here. "They're pretty hot on the matter and everyone will be there," he said.
"We're going to fight this to a finish," declared the mayor emphatically. He said the opposition would not be dropped until every resource had been exhausted.
In addition to signing the petitions at tonight's meeting the manner in which the protests will be laid before the commission will be discussed. It is also probable that a means for raising the funds necessary to back the fight will be taken up.

PRIVATE SAM ROWE BRAVES DEATH TO SEND MONEY HOME

West Side Soldier Faces Shellfire For Hour to Get Order Filled.

MANY DO THE SAME THING

Private Harry Robinson. Also of 110th Infantry, under the date of December 15 and 16, Reiga A. Marietta, formerly of Connellsville, states he expects to be home in June. The young soldier was a member of Company E, 11th Infantry, enlisting in Pittsburgh, but since his discharge from a hospital in France he has been stationed at Brillyon Leave Area, St. Etienne, France, and was recently made a personnel sergeant. He was gassed and wounded on July 15. A part of the letters is as follows:
"We have been very busy the past week. Am still personnel sergeant here and this morning made out 10 pay rolls and quite a number this afternoon. I was not badly wounded. Was gassed and suffered a contusion of the left hip and am getting along fine with the exception of my eyes. Have had them treated at a camp hospital but have not as yet received glasses.
"Am not far from Paris. Have been there twice but would like to be there when President Wilson arrives. I certainly would like to have been with my regiment when it was assigned to the Army of Occupation in Germany. I am classified now and until for a combatant unit. From all indications I will not be home before June 1919. France is all right but give me the good old U. S. A. I will soon be two years since I joined the army and I surely will be glad to get back to civilian life.
"I made the trip to Mont St. Michel, one of the seven wonders of the world, the other day. I expect to get a pass soon and I want to go back to Chateau-Thierry again and look over the grounds where we first entered the firing line on the night of July 15. I shall never forget that date as long as I live. I do not remember much that occurred that night, but have a vague idea. It was our first night and our experience was awful. At times it seems just like a nightmare."

At times it seems just like a nightmare."

Among those who faced shellfire in the open under the side of the great hill was Private Samuel E. Rowe. Company D, 110th Infantry, a son of Mrs. M. J. Rowe 408 South Eighth street, West Side, Connellsville. He stood in the rain for nearly an hour to send money home.

The division had suffered heavily by the fighting eastward from Chateau-Thierry. As the men who had borne the brunt of the combat were relieved at the Vesle by other units, they went into camp on the side of the steep hill and in an adjoining woods, which they wrested from the enemy. Though relieved they were in support and still under shellfire and ready to go into action at a moment's notice. Camp in this case consisted of each man or two men digging a shallow sand pit and crawling into it.

The men were anxious to send their money home as many had lost it in the heavy fighting, and others had been killed. In fact there were some like Private Harry K. Robinson of the 110th Infantry, which was stationed nearby, who wanted to send money back for his child, Earle Young, who had been killed in action that morning. Other men who sent money home were killed within the next few days.

Practically all the money sent back to America from France is sent through the Y. M. C. A., which makes no charge for the service. It is one of the fine things that the Y. M. C. A. has done for the troops. In March, the men of the A. E. F. sent home $71,428.72. In September they sent home $2,340,823.42. It was sent back by $8,400 men, making an average of $15.97 per man. The total amount sent to America up to date through the Y. M. C. A. is $8,271,100.14, by 156,436 men.

While the money orders were being written, the enemy began searching the nearby road and fields with artillery. Shells fell within 75 yards of where the money orders were being written. Several shells fell on the road, completely blocking it for some time. Fortunately no one was struck.

When it became so dark that no more orders could be written, it was found that the "Y" machine was stuck in the mud, and a group of soldiers practically picked it up and carried it on an old wood lane, 100 yards away. Then they pushed it for nearly half a mile, to a main road.

Private Rowe was some time ago reported missing. Nothing has been received by the mother since that time regarding him.

15TH ENGINEERS

And 8th Division to be Ordered Home Soon, Says the War Department.

According to information from the War Department the 15th Engineers and the 8th Division, both of which are largely composed of men from Fayette, Westmoreland, Somerset and adjoining counties, have not been assigned to the Army of Occupation, but will be ordered home for demobilization shortly.
No date has been set for the embarkation of these units from a French port but it is the expectation of men in the ranks that they will be home some time next month.

PRIVATE CHAS. LYNCH IN FRONT

TILL LAST SHOT WAS FIRED.

A letter of Private Charles T. Lynch, Company A, 131st Infantry, American Expeditionary Forces, to his cousin, Thomas McGarrity of Dunbar, furnishes evidence of the appreciation the boys over there have of the work the Knights of Columbus are doing for them. Writing under date of November 18, Private Lynch says:
"A word of praise for your lodge, the K. of C. I would not have paper to write on to you now if it were not for them. Also had four or five cups of cocoa, about 30 K. of C. cigarettes, two packs of chewing gum, a couple of cups of bouillon and cubes to make more."
"The K. of C. is doing something we will not forget in a hurry, and what you get is free and given freely. You can be sure that they have done a lot of good."
"I was in the front till the last shot was fired and have had a devil of a time the last few days and nights."

ED. HATHAWAY HOME

Uniontown Printer Suffered Shattered Leg at Hands of Hun.

Virtually recovered from a shattered left leg and shell shock which affected his face, Ed. Hathaway, a Uniontown printer who went over with the Company K outfit of the 116th Infantry is back home with a discharge. He has been in an American hospital for about a month following his return from overseas and came to Uniontown yesterday from Waynesburg. COLD WAVE ARRIVES

Temperature Falls to 10 Degrees; Light Snow Flurries.

The cold wave which was predicted by the weather forecaster yesterday arrived during the day and the thermometer fell to 10 degrees, according to the official figures taken this morning. Reports from some family thermometers give lower temperatures. The cold was preceded by a light snow which fell yesterday. There was some wind which made the cold more "biting," and it was the general opinion that thermometers would register zero during the night. That low figure was not reached in this section, however. A light film of ice formed on the banks of the Young river. The weather forecast for today promises fair and warmer weather.

WHAT FRANCE HAS DONE FOR DEMOCRACY

France has poured out blood and treasure to the breaking point to make the world safe for democracy. America owes her an enormous debt of gratitude for this and also for a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal trouble found by her peasants and used with reported marvelous results in this country. Geo. H. Mayr, for many years a prominent Chicago chemist, imports the ingredients under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. A. A. Clarke and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

HUGGINS GETS HIS RELEASE

Manager of New York Yankees Free to Return to Civil Life—Was in Naval Service.

They are gradually sitting back to baseball, Miller Huggins, who managed the Yankees last season, has been released to civil life and has retired to Cincinnati, where he expects to spend a quiet winter. Huggins, because of age, had no chance to get into active war work, but gave his services to the training camp activities commission and was assigned to the naval training station at Pelham Bay.

Huggins is an attorney by profession, and practices law off and on during the winter months. His Yankees last season did not flourish like the green bay tree, but he had a lot of success in St. Louis with the Cardinals when they were owned by Mrs. Helena Haraway Robison Britton.

Why Meat Prices Vary in Different Stores

Prime steers.....	$13.00 to $20.35
Good to choice steers.....	$12.00 to $13.85
Common to medium steers.....	$10.75 to $12.75
Yearlings, fair to fancy.....	$16.00 to $18.20
Pit cows and heifers.....	$8.25 to $15.50
Culling cows and heifers.....	$7.50 to $12.50
Bulls, plain to best.....	$4.00 to $12.00
Poor to fancy calves.....	$5.75 to $16.75
Western ranges steers.....	$10.00 to $15.00

These newspaper quotations represent live cattle prices in Chicago on December 30th, 1918.

The list shows price ranges on nine general classified groups with a spread of $13.85 per cwt.—the lowest at $6.50, and the highest at $20.35.

Why this variation in price?

Because the meat from different animals varies greatly in quality and weight,

Although the quotations shown are in nine divisions, Swift & Company grades cattle into 34 general classes, and each class into a variety of weights and qualities.

As a result of these differences in cattle prices, (due to differences in weights and meat qualities), there is a range of 15 cents in Swift & Company's selling prices of beef carcasses.

These facts explain:

- 1—Why retail prices vary in different stores.
- 2—Why it would be difficult to regulate prices of cattle or beef.
- 3—Why it requires experts to judge cattle and to sell meat, so as to yield the profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to affect prices.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

KIDNEYS WEAKENED BY INFLUENZA

Sufferers After Results of Late Epidemic, Say Every Man and Woman Should Make This Simple Test

Thousands of people who suffered and have recovered from influenza now find their kidneys and bladder in a weakened condition and don't know what to do for it. There is a frequent desire to urinate they are in pain out of bed three or four times a night the urine is cloudy or dark with an unpleasant odor. This need not indicate actual kidney disease but it is always a sign of weakness and should be promptly and properly treated before it is too late.

No strong medicine or needles are a rule. A better plan is to use a simple and harmless kidney treatment like DILL'S which acts on the kidneys and bladder in a mild but gentle manner and is said to get out and neutralize the poisonous acid and dissolve the clotted up in the urinary organs and expel it from the body.
If your kidneys are of just make this simple test. Save a sample of your present urine. Then take a few drops of Solvax today. Think how much better you feel and how fine you feel in the morning. In a week's time take another sample of urine. Compare with the old. This will tell the story. Solvax should clear up ordinary kidney trouble. It is a safe and short-acting medicine and is perfectly safe for all ages and many other local druggists sell it on a positive guarantee of money back if it in any case does not give prompt relief—Adv.

AUGMENTING THE GAS SUPPLY.

If, as natural gas experts seem to agree, the increasing demand for and increasing supply of this form of fuel will continue at the present or greater rate, industrial users will soon be confronted with the necessity of discontinuing its use, the supply being wholly diverted to domestic consumers.

Every indication being that the supply cannot possibly be kept equal to the demand, the gas industry is giving more and more attention to providing a substitute for the natural gas or some means of augmenting the diminishing supply. The development in the manufacture of gas, particularly in plants devoted to making by-product coke, having advanced so rapidly it is more and more coming to be believed that this agency will constitute the most efficient substitute for the gas well.

This method of fuel gas manufacture is no experiment; but transmission of the product over long distances and blending it with the natural product have yet to be worked out. At all of the new by-product coke plants operating in connection with blast furnaces the gas has long been successfully piped to points of consumption relatively short distances from the reactors. At the Clairton plant coke oven gas is being transported several miles from the producing ovens, but to date no plant is in operation from which gas is being carried out; thing like the distances traversed between the natural gas fields and the centers of distribution and use.

That it is entirely practicable, simply as an engineering problem, to pipe coke oven gas long distances is the opinion of many men who have given thought and study to the problem. At Fairmont a plant is now in process of erection the gas product of which is to be applied to reinforcing the natural supply and other projects of the same kind are understood to be in contemplation.

If, as appears to be no longer a question of doubt, manufactured fuel gas can be blended with the natural product and transported in the same manner and to as great distances as is now being done with the former alone, it would indeed be a great possibility in the extension of the by-product coke industry and the location of such plants at the source of their raw material rather than at the place of consumption of one of their important products. The fact that the Conneltsville region has had no near at hand consumer for by-product oven gas has been the principal reason why such plants have not been constructed at the mines instead of at the furnaces.

Now that there is reasonably assured prospect that a new era is dawning in the industry there is certainly a splendid opportunity for coal land owners of the Conneltsville region to relieve themselves of the reproach that has long rested upon the manufacture of beehive coke because of the great economic waste of the process. With a coal, which is admittedly the richest in by-products, and everywhere regarded as the standard in the manufacture of by-product coke, the Conneltsville region could not only retain its prestige as a coke producing center, but add to it by converting its wastes into another form of fuel for which there is an assured and steadily increasing demand in the industries and for domestic use.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT IN 1919.

Three hundred million dollars is such a huge sum of money that when we read that it will probably be expended in road building and road improvement this year we get an impression of great progress soon to be realized in an essential work, says the Pittsburgh Gazette Times. But a little figuring discloses that if the expectations of the Bureau of Public Roads and Rural Engineering are fulfilled not much will have been done toward giving this great country the system of improved highways which it must have. At an average cost of $20,000 a mile, the $300,000,000 would provide not more than 15,000 miles of good roads. And Pennsylvania alone has over 10,000 miles that it is hoped to eventually make genuinely serviceable. Nevertheless, spread over the United States, 15,000 miles of good highways constructed this year would prove of great value. It would be a stimulative force, and that is needed as much as the roads themselves.

Strangely dull are the imaginations of millions of people. They can be moved only by demonstrations; some of them deny even that which they are given to see. But experience has proved that a few miles of improved road in a county has the effect of creating a demand for more. And with conviction that up-to-date highways are good things come public willingness to furnish the money to pay for them. Public sentiment for good roads has been created and the building of them is a mere matter of detail. A few years ago indifference to the subject was almost general. Now the Washington bureau mentioned above finds an almost universal demand in this country for good roads. Most of the states have road-building programs for this year that will call for the expenditure of many millions of dollars. The work will give employment to millions of men, for the labor benefits will not be confined to those who are directly engaged in construction work. The materials that go into the roadbeds, the machinery that is used, the fuel that is consumed all must be considered in calculating the benefits that will be distributed through carrying out road-building programs. The more improved highways we have the more we shall have to build, so that good as the prospect is for this year we may conclude what is done in 1919 will be but the beginning of an enterprise that will be continued for years to come.

One guess is about as good as another as to what is really taking place in Berlin but we may be sure that there are busy days for those who are trying to run the government.

The "team work" spirit has extended to the churches but not to the extent of making one evangelical team of all of them.

Is there not danger that Mayor Carr's order to send Uniontown drunks home to their wives, instead of locking them up until sober, will be inflicting cruel and barbarous punishment upon the innocent rather than the guilty, unless, as reported, Uniontown stimulants have the effect of making the imbibers very amiable in disposition and mood?

CUTTING LOOSE.

We learned to sail some kopecks down, to do without new hat or gown, in war's forbidding days. I thought I'd learned the use of thrift and that I'd never more would drift to our old wasteful ways. I said "The lesson war has taught could never be too dearly bought, it is of untold worth; we've learned the value of the yen and the won't blow the iron men while we wait this earth. We've learned how good it is to own a surplus plunk, an extra coat, when comes the time of stress the lesson's sunk into our souls and we'll be careful of our rolls in future times, I guess. But when I heard that war was done, that we had captured the cultured Hun, and stripped him of his sword, I felt a wild desire to go to busy marts of trade and blow my little war-time hoard. "The hit is on," I told myself, "the merchant has upon his shelf a lot of junk I need; to be a miser in peace times, to go on hoarding plunk and dime, was foolishness indeed." And so I went abroad to buy whatever doddad caught my eye just beat on burning men; and all my neighbors were abroad, each one resolved to blow the war he saved ever war was done.

BALLAD OF THE COMMON CRY.

Things I cannot afford to buy,
Costly pleasures and costly dress
Are extra servings of cake or pie—
These are the sources of happiness
Gave me the joys when the rich pass-saw.
Cavities and imported cheese,
This I want from life's wilderness.
"All I want is the luxuries!"

I would stand on the mountains high,
Far above duty and its distress,
Watching the multitudes passing by,
Dinny seeing and saying less.
Thrilled with the rapture of success,
Day by day I would take my ease,
Dreaming and dreaming, in idleness
"All I want is the luxuries!"

Money I fancy would cure my sigh,
Peace would follow with fame's
scurry.
Love would be true and never die
Never a care would my joy suppress
Not to pretend should my soul confess
Guilt from worry its owner free,
Hopes would flourish on barrenness,
All I want is the luxuries!

LEXVOT
Master, cannot your children guess
That peace isn't purchased with golden fees
Never again shall my lips express
"All I want is the luxuries!"

Mid-Month List

Columbia Records

"You'll Find Old Dixieland in France"

Here's a Van and Schenck Dixie Song with a decidedly novel slant. "Instead of picking melons off the vine, they're picking Germans off the Rhine." A real tribute to the "Smoke Brigades" that fought so bravely Over There. A-2665-85c

"I Aint Got Weary Yet"

A song of Johnny Dunn who sailed away to fight the Hun — and "ain't got weary yet!" There's a gale of melodious laughter in Johnny's merry adventures in France. On the back, "Would You Rather Be a Colonel With an Eagle on Your Shoulder, or a Private With a Chicken on Your Knee?" A-2669-85c

A Lover's Song — "Till We Meet Again"

Rarely have exquisite melody and appealing words been so beautifully united in a song of war-time sentiment. In millions of American homes today the dreams this song expresses are happily coming true. A-2668-85c

"Thou Shalt Not Spend More Than Thou Earnest"

Extravagance and living beyond one's means are aimed at in the new commandment which Rupert Hughes gives us in the new serial from the pen of this well-known and popular writer that we are secured.

The Thirteenth Commandment

is an unusually interesting story of modern life set on the fringe of New York high society, describing the struggles of a little group of people working out the problem of romance versus finance.

Once you start reading the story you will surely finish it, and having finished it you will be glad you started it.

Well Known Insurance Man Had Been Unwell for Some Time; Was Engaged in Several Lines of Activity; Missionary Society's Election; Notes

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, Jan. 10.—The memorial committee selected by council met at the borough building last evening and after some discussion decided that the memorial for those in the service should be a community affair and that the borough at an early date should call a meeting of the citizens and present the idea of some sort of a memorial and let the citizens decide whether this shall be a building, a monument or just what it should be. At this meeting the community will be asked to name their chairman and organize for a memorial association.

A. S. Overholt, aged 47 years, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Anna Overholt, Church street, yesterday morning. Mr. Overholt, who had not been well for some time, had recently moved his office from the People's National bank building to his home on Church street. Mr. Overholt conducted a real estate and insurance business, was secretary of the borough council, secretary of the Town Hall Association and had been a member of the official board of the Methodist Episcopal church for a number of years. His mother, one brother, Dr. Edward Overholt of Chicago, and a niece, Miss Eva Plotner, who made her home with the Overholts, survive. Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will follow in the Mount Pleasant cemetery. The borough council will attend the funeral in a body.

ARRESTS TO FOLLOW

Several Will be Taken Into Custody as Result of Film Fire Probe.

By Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 10.—Frederick Sauer, owner of the Penn avenue film exchange building, where 10 persons lost their lives in the explosion of Tuesday afternoon, has been summoned to appear before Coroner Samuel C. Jamison today and explain why building regulations were not complied with and why other violations of laws and regulations on film storage buildings were permitted.

There will be arrests, not two, but half a dozen or more, asserted Jamison, yesterday, in emphasizing that there would be no singling out of one film exchange firm as the scapegoat. "There is now no doubt that there was the grossest kind of negligence on the part of the owner of the building, the occupants of the film company quarters, and on the part of those who rented tenants who should not have been in the building with the film companies," said the coroner.

DAILY HEALTH TALKS

Where Most Sickness Begins and Ends

BY FRANKLIN DUANE, M. D.

It can be said broadly that most human ills begin in the stomach and end in the stomach. Good digestion means good health and good digestion means bad health. The minute your stomach fails to properly dispose of the food you eat, troubles begin to crop out in various forms. Indigestion and dyspepsia are the commonest forms, but thin, impure blood, headaches, backaches, pimples, blotches, dizziness, belching, coated tongue, weakness, poor appetite, sleeplessness, coughs, colds and bronchitis are almost as common. There is but one way to have good health, and that is to put and keep your stomach in good order. This is easy to do if you take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a won't fail tonic and blood purifier, and is so safe to take, for it is made of roots and herbs. Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., stands behind this standard medicine, and it is good to know that so distinguished a physician is proud to have his name identified with it. When you take Golden Medical Discovery, you are getting the benefit of the experience of a doctor whose reputation goes all around the earth. Still more, you get a temperance medicine that contains not a drop of alcohol or narcotic of any kind. Long ago Dr. Pierce combined certain valuable vegetable ingredients—without the use of alcohol—so that these remedies always have been strictly temperance medicines. If piles are torturing you, get and use Pierce's Anodyne Pile Ointment. The quick relief it gives is hard to believe until you try it. If constipated, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken while using Anodyne Pile Ointment. Few indeed are the cases which these splendid remedies will not relieve and really overcome. They are so good that nearly every drug store has them for sale.

STRENGTH FOR YOUNG MOTHERS

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restores Health and Strength.

Lansing, Mich.—"After the birth of my child I was not able to stand on my feet. I was so weak I could not get up. I suffered such pains in my back I could not work or hardly take care of my baby. One of my neighbors recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and I got better right away and was soon a new woman and could work hard, and I can recommend these remedies to other young mothers who are weak and ailing as I was."—Mrs. O. A. BOWERS, 621 S. Homer Street, Lansing, Mich.

Women who are in Mrs. Bowers' condition should not continue to suffer from weakness and pain—but profit from her experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years' experience is at your service.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

T. R. ESTATE $500,000

All to be Held in Trust for Widow of Former President.

OSTER BAY, N. Y., Jan. 10.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's will, made in 1912, was read to members of the family at Sagamore Hill yesterday and probably will be filed with the surrogate of Nassau county today.

Although the value of the former President's estate was not made known, it is understood to amount to not more than $500,000. According to Attorney George C. Cobble of New York, who read the will, the document provides that the entire estate, with the exception of the family silver and plate, shall be held in trust for the widow during her life, and gives her power to dispose of it by will as she sees fit. In the event she leaves no will, the estate is to be divided in equal parts among the children.

The silver and family plate Mr. Cobble said, are to be divided among the children, as is a $50,000 trust fund left to Colonel Roosevelt by his father.

LOSE VERY HEAVILY

Unusually Large Number of Replacements Among Keystone Troops.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—There were 22,873 replacements in the Twenty-eighth Pennsylvania division during the period of its participation in the American campaign in France. This is almost three-fifths of the division's war strength. The figures have reached Washington through unofficial channels.

Red Keystones are being worn on the sleeves by members of the Pennsylvania regiments. The insignia was approved by General Pershing and the war department in recognition of the division's record in action.

Would you advise a young man to go into any business where he saw an opening?
"Yes, unless he was sure the opening wouldn't get him into a hole."

Jiffy-Jell
The New-Grade Gelatine Dainty
For Desserts and Salads

Fresh-Fruit Desserts

Of the Finest Fruits—At Trifling Cost
With a Wealth of Fruit-Juice Essence

Note the fruity delights which Jiffy-Jell puts at your instant call. And now, when you need fruit, and fruit is so costly.

Each package of Jiffy-Jell contains the flavor in liquid form, in a vial. Each fruit flavor is an essence, condensed from the juice of the fruit.

The flavors are abundant. We use half a ripe Pineapple to make one vial of flavor. We use 65 Loganberries to make another—all for one dessert.

All the fragrance and flavor, all the healthfulness of the fresh, ripe fruit are concentrated in this vial. And, sealed in glass, the essence keeps its freshness. So Jiffy-Jell desserts and salads taste like fresh-fruit dainties.

Rare-grade gelatine, ready-sweetened and prepared, comes in the package with the flavor. You simply add boiling water, then the flavor from the bottle, and pour in molds to cool.

It's a Revelation

Jiffy-Jell differs vastly from the old-style gelatine desserts. Their flavors come in dry form, mixed with the gelatine.

True-fruit flavors cannot keep in that way. The finest flavors are impossible.

In Jiffy-Jell you get a fruit-juice essence sealed in glass. You get a wealth of the fresh-fruit flavor. You get the fresh-fruit healthfulness. It is like using the fruit itself.

This is the new-day gelatine dainty. It has brought to millions already a new idea of gelatine desserts. Now we urge you to enjoy it.

Also for Salads, Etc.

Lime-fruit flavor makes a tart, green salad jelly. Serve it with your salad or mix the salad in before cooling. Use cooked or uncooked vegetables—left-overs will do. Or mix in meat scraps and make a delicious meat loaf—meat in aspic.

Mint flavor makes fresh-mint garnish jelly for serving with cold meats or roast lamb.

Any fruit flavor makes delightful fruit salad.

We want you to know these dainties—now when you need them most. So we make these mold offers to induce a prompt trial. Try Loganberry or Pineapple as a dessert, also try Lime or Mint. Try two of these flavors—for your own sake—this week and you are entitled to any of these gifts.

"There is one remedy I always keep in the house, and that is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It helps my digestion wonderfully, and as a laxative it is pleasant and dependable." (From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mr. J. N. Kidd, Bell, Texas)

From youth to age the greatest menace to health is constipation, which retards digestion and disturbs the entire organic system. To relieve constipation a mild laxative, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is preferable to drastic cathartics and purgatives, the violence of which shock the system unduly.

THE PARADE

PLAYS BAD GIRL—A play destined to give Mabel Normand her greatest fame is being shown today. Printed comedy it is a rare combination of the new and erstwhile Mabel Normand. The brilliant artist never more or less to a part than she does in this her greatest triumph. Given free reign for her original style of comedy Miss Normand will surprise the scene by her performance in one situation after another. Puck's Bad Girl has many tense moments and once again does beautiful Mabel Normand demonstrate that her success in drama is as great as in comedy that providing thrills for audiences is no less difficult for her than making them bow with glee. A sweetheart and a job bring a marked change in the life of Mabel Penelope Puck. Before the arrival of Richard Froyes in Yaptank the villagers have been roused to desperate deeds by the daily pranks of Mabel. But when Richard begins to "shine" to her Mabel decides she wants to be more like other girls. So she gets a job as assistant to a milliner in the village. She wears headgear of the latest fall fashion. The play will please those who have been eager for so long to get another glimpse of her as the "nervous" minkie or old as well as countless others who love to see the Goldwyn star becomingly groomed in a part which so admirably fits her comedy and drama talents. Monday Franny Wehler will be featured in "The Bonded Wife."

THE SOISSON

TEMPERED STEEL—A wonderful drama in which Madame Petrova the celebrated actress is seen in a powerful role supported by a cast of unusual excellence is being shown today. The production is one of the best in which the favorite screen star has appeared for some time. It gives her a splendid opportunity to display her dramatic talents. He acting as a traveling salesman in a part which is a big attraction. A selected comedy is also being shown.

MANHATTAN PLAYERS

Connellville playgoers will be glad to welcome the Manhattan Players on their return to the Soisson beginning Monday matinee January 19. Mr. Tully has the best company in his career and all in all the opening will be a red letter day in local theatrical history. William A. Brady's famous comedy drama Sinner as seen at the Playhouse New York City for a long year will be the opening play. Sinner is a play of unusual merit and written along entirely new lines. The production will be magnificently staged on a scale never equalled at popular prices. During the engagement other big attractions including "The Call of the Circus" and "The Call of the Mother" and plays of like calibre will be seen at the Soisson stage.

WEAK, DISCOURAGED WIFE

Advised B. Friends to try Vinol—What It Did for Her.

Florence, S. C.—"I was in a weak, nervous, run down condition, took cold easily could hardly keep around and do my work—and was all discouraged. I had taken cough syrups and tonics without benefit, until a friend asked me to try Vinol—I gained rapidly by its use, so I am now in good health."—Mrs. Addie Wilkerson.

The reason Vinol was so successful in restoring Mrs. Wilkerson to health is because it is a constitutional remedy which enriches and revitalizes the blood and creates strength.
